5.2. Removals

5.2.1.
Elected and appointed officials may be removed from the ASG Executive Board of Directors, ASG Board of Directors, ASBC Legislative Committee and ASG Judicial Board for dereliction of duty. Dereliction of duty may be defined as, but not restricted to the following at the discretion of the ASG Executive Board of Directors:

5.2.1.1.
Three (3) unexcused absences from officially scheduled ASG Board of Directors meetings per term. Three (3) unexcused absences will result in a probationary period being applied to the individual.

5.2.1.2. Not being representative of students.

5.2.1.3.
No confidence that the member is able to perform their duties as expected, such as:

5.2.1.3.1.
Meeting deadlines;

5.2.1.3.2.
Working collaboratively as a team;

5.2.1.3.3.
Following through on assigned tasks;

5.2.1.3.4.
Maintaining office hours;

5.2.1.3.5.
Attending required meetings and/or training sessions, including retreats

5.2.2.
Any ASG officer may submit a formal, written complaint to the ASG Chief Justice, stating specifically how the board member is not meeting performance or job expectations. The ASG Chief Justice will present the complaint to the ASG Executive Board of Directors. The ASG Executive Board of Directors will meet with the board member in question and the board member issuing the complaint to hear both perspectives. If the board member in question is one of the ASG Executive Board of Directors, the person will not be allowed to oversee or participate in official functions regarding their own review.

5.2.2.1.
The ASG Executive Board of Directors will send a formal letter to the board member in question three (3) days after the executive meeting. The formal letter must include the following:

5.2.2.1.1.
An explanation of the action(s) made by the board member in question

5.2.2.1.2.
The decision of the ASG Executive Board of Directors to issue a warning, a probationary period, or a dismissal of complaint to the board member in question 5.2.2.2.

If the board member receives probation, the ASG Executive Board of Directors will assign measurable criteria’s to the board member which s/he will have to finish them within the probationary period. Probation status of an ASBC member is to be kept confidential among the ASG Executive Board of Directors.
5.2.2.3. After the probation period, the Judicial Board will send out a formal letter to the ASG Executive Board of Directors as well as the board member in question informing them, with a specific date and time at least two days prior to the probationary review to discuss the probationary period. During the probationary review, the ASG Executive Board of Directors will reconvene with the board member in question to review the concerns and make a decision concerning a:

5.2.2.3.1. Dismissal of probation period, at which time the board member will be reinstated to the original status and must perform all duties expected

5.2.2.3.2. Recommendation of a vote of “confidence” to the ASG Board of Directors at the next official ASG board meeting.

5.3. Vote of “Confidence”

5.3.1. A vote of “confidence” may be recommended by any student for a lack of confidence in an ASG officer performing their duties as expected, such as:

5.3.1.1. Meeting deadlines

5.3.1.2. Working collaboratively as a team

5.3.1.3. Following through on assigned tasks

5.3.1.4. Maintaining office hours

5.3.1.5. Attending required meetings and/or training sessions, including retreats.

5.3.1.6. Duties and responsibilities as stated in the ASBC by-laws

5.3.1.7. Being representative of students

5.3.2. After a vote of “confidence” is called, a special ASG Executive Board of Directors meeting will be held. At this meeting, a decision will be made for the officer in question and should a majority vote be reached, and the matter will be presented to the ASG Board of Directors.

5.3.2.1. Prior to the ASG Executive Board of Directors meeting, the student officer along with the advisor will be informed about the matter by the ASG President.

5.3.2.2. Any currently registered student at Bellevue College, may call a vote of “confidence” provided he/she has a reasonable amount of written proof that the student officer in question has been continually failing to fulfill his/her duties.

5.3.2.3. The ASG Board of Directors including the ASG Judicial Board will take a vote of “confidence” regarding the board member, who may not have a vote. The ASG Board of Directors may only dismiss the member for “no confidence” with a two thirds (2/3) vote of the present voting members, excluding the ASG President who will act as a tie breaker.

5.3.2.4. If the vote of “confidence” fails, the ASG Executive Board of Directors can rule and create their own response to the board member by giving the officer in question an extended probationary status, or reinstating the board member to his/her original status.
5.3.2.5. After the end of the probation period and after the board member’s status is reinstated, the individual must perform all duties expected. If they do not, a vote of “confidence” will be imposed at the next board meeting.

5.3.2.6. A vote of “confidence” will result in permanent disqualification of any ASG position.

5.3.2.7. The ASG President will make a motion for vote of “confidence” during an official ASG board meeting.
