

Oolong Tea Affogato

This is a beverage that goes well with the sweets. It's perfect on a hot day. I call it Oolong Tea Affogato. Traditionally the beverage base is espresso coffee but I love tea more than coffee. I cold brew yamamoto oolong tea and let it steep for hours overnight. It is very strong and concentrated when it comes out. I then add a nice scoop of local hand made vanilla bean ice cream to sweeten out the taste and balance the roasted deep flavor of the tea. A tiny mint leaf from my garden is a cute garnish.
