

Ichi-go ichi-e

The tea is gyokuro. It is my favorite tea. The cup is one I made, as is the enso. Sometimes I make enso before I paint, as a way of focusing my mind. Making tea and drinking it also prepares my mind for painting. The photograph is a unique moment where pottery, painting and tea came together in the morning light of my studio.

Submitted by: Victor S.