

TSO ANNUAL MEETING MINUTES

Saturday, August 17, 2019

President Sandi Medendorp began the meeting with a quote, "So much of my life has been better than I imagined."

TELOS is a family of learners and teachers. A new relationship with the administration has been achieved, and negotiated was a quarterly tuition increase of 6% not 76%.

Individuals can volunteer in three ways:

1. talk to class mates and discover their interests;
2. share thoughts;
3. attend committee and council meetings.

Talk to friends about TELOS.

Outgoing TSO Officers were introduced, then present TSO Officers were presented. Committee Chairs and Instructors were also introduced.

Enrollment is starting for Fall classes. Suggestions for instructors are also needed.

Presentations were made describing the clubs organized by TSO which are:

Memoirs, Henry Bohne; Book Club, Charlie Lyter; Politics Book Club, Richard Young; Movie Club, Linda Wilson; Sports Talk Club, Jay Melnick; Constitution Club, Ted Watts; and Climate Club, Ted Watts.

The meeting adjourned at 12:15 pm.
